4thESO-B/C. 27th April

This week will review "Defining Relative Clause". Remember when we talk about people, things and events we often use defining relative clauses to give essential information about the nouns they refer to, they define the noun they refer to. A relative clause always comes after the noun it describes.

"Henry VIII was a king who/that had six wives"

Review grammar Workbook page 98, unit 2.

Do exercises: 1, 2 and 3 on page 17, workbook.

Do "listening" on page 19 (CD5 track3) exercises 3 and 4. You will find the audio on Burlington Books on line, click on Student´s zone, then on "ESO" and finally on your course book.

Do Reading on page 19, workbook, and exercise 1 and 2.

Deadline 6th may.

zalaquarantine@gmail.com