Can you see her?
- Is she wearing a purple sarong?
- Yes, she is. A purple sarong and sunglasses.
- Oh, yes. I like that sarong.

B) Which girl is Ann? B

4- Read and match a verse to each person in the picture.
(Relaciona cada verso con cada unha das persoas do debuxo).

Marching, marching, marching,
Marching all day long!
Marching, marching, marching,
Sing our marching song.

1 Shoes and socks,
shoes and socks,
Off to town I go.
I'm wearing purple trousers,
And a blue shirt.
Oh ...

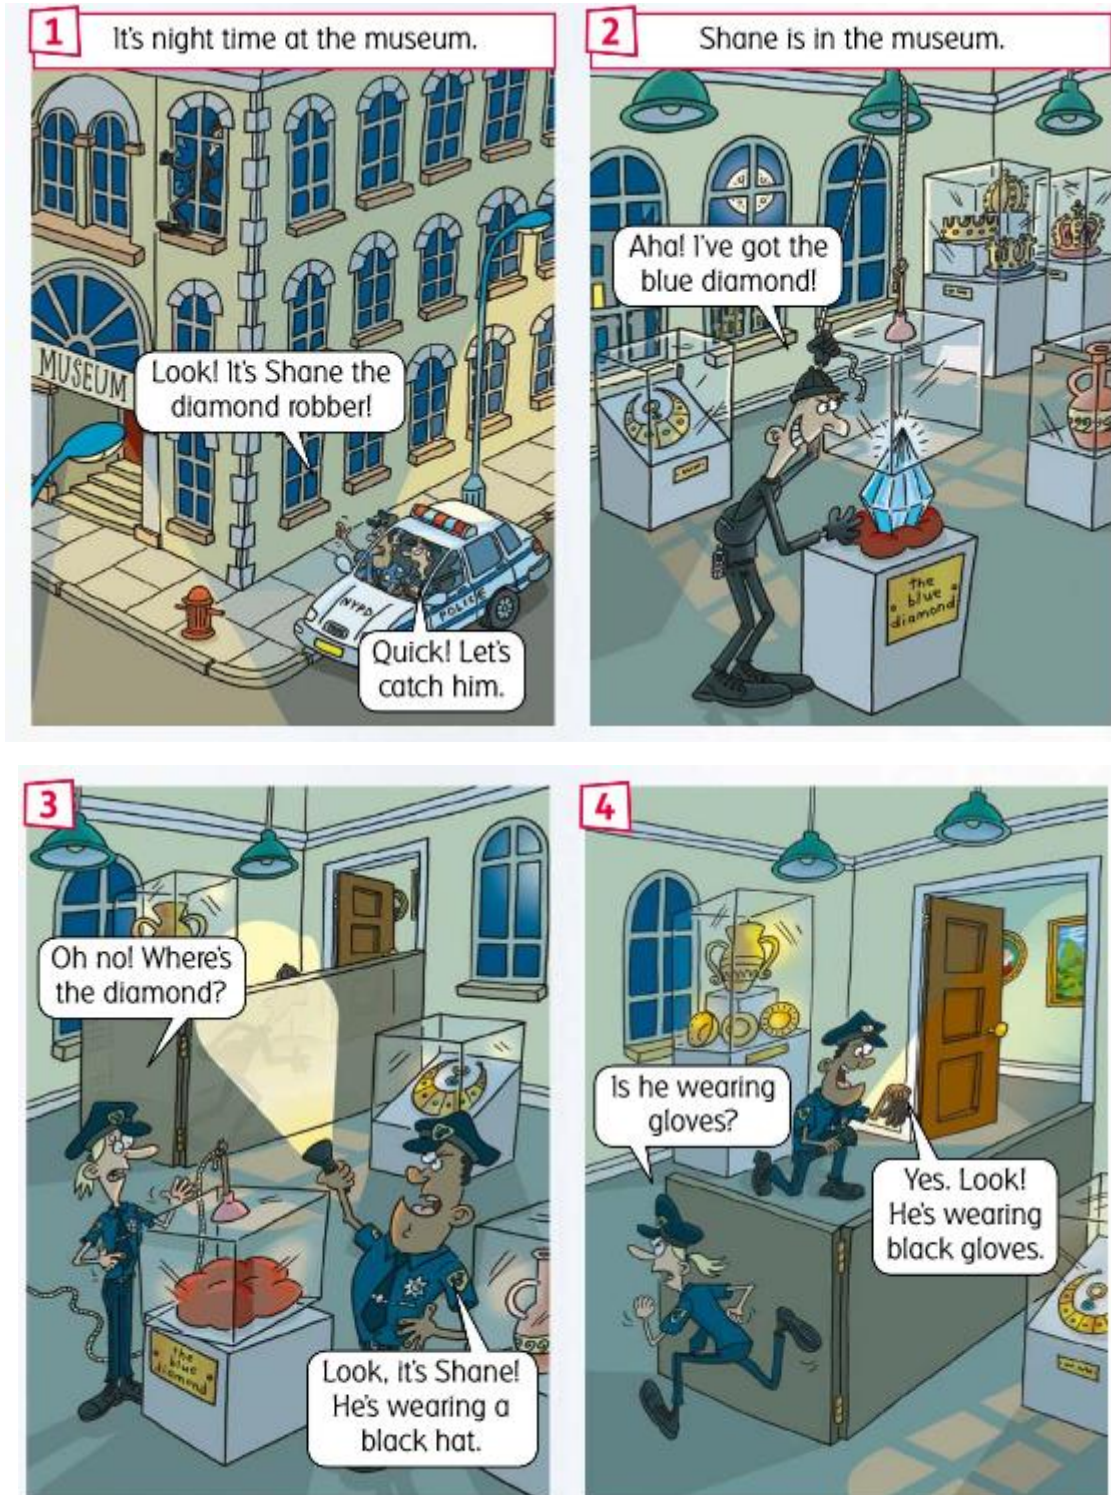

2 Shoes and socks,
shoes and socks,
Off to town I go.
I'm wearing a red jumper,
And a grey skirt.
Oh ...

3 Shoes and socks,
shoes and socks,
Off to town I go.
I'm wearing yellow shorts,
And a T-shirt.

Dressing up in the UK

1. New vocabulary:

Dress up: disfrazarse

Characters: personaxes

Wig: perruca

2. Read the text and match the number with the letter:

A This is the Notting Hill Carnival in London. Lots of people dress up and wear colourful costumes. Maya's got a yellow hat with flowers. She's got glasses, too.

B On World Book Day we dress up at school. Teachers and children dress up as characters from their favourite stories. Becky is Winnie the Witch and Sam's Robin Hood. I'm the careless giant. I've got big ears and a beard!

C This is Holly. She's going to a fancy dress party. She's a pop star! She's got funny glasses and she's wearing a pink wig. She looks great!
