

1 Listen and read.

Interviewing Granddad

Can you remember your first day at primary school?

Yes! I was five years old and I was very nervous. My teacher's name was Sandra. She was very friendly.

Were you hard-working at school?

Yes, I was. I was never lazy, but I was really talkative. I remember the teachers saying 'Be quiet!' to me a lot, but they weren't really angry with me.

What was your favourite subject?

Music! I was good at singing and playing the guitar. I was in the school band when I was ten.

Were you good at Maths?

No, I wasn't. Maths was difficult for me. I was good at Music, Science and English.

Were you sporty?

Yes, I was. I was good at football and swimming. When I was eleven, I was in the swimming team.

Were you good at IT?

Joel! I was at school in the 1950s. IT wasn't a subject then!

2 Read and say True or False.

- Sandra was a scary teacher.
- Joel's granddad was sometimes lazy.
- He was really talkative.
- His favourite subject was Music.
- Science lessons were difficult for him.
- He was in the school gymnastics team.

3 Listen and say who. Then ask in pairs.

When I was at school...

character	artistic, sporty	friendly, quiet	talkative, artistic	sporty, friendly	funny, talkative
good at	PE, Art	Music, Science	Art, Maths	Spanish, PE	Maths, English
not good at	Maths	PE	English	Art	Music

Were you sporty?

No, I wasn't.

Were you good at Art?

Yes, I was.

Are you Karen?

Yes!