Tim Logan is 12. He lives in Dublin. Yesterday it was cold and raining but it was Tim's big day! He was first in the lotto! Now he's got 2 million euros. He's very happy! Yesterday he was at the shopping centre with his family. His mum was at the supermarket and he was at the music shop with his dad. There was a TV in the music shop. The lotto prize number was on the TV. It was his number! Now he wants to go to the beach in Spain with his friends. He wants to take a tent and he wants to go by helicopter!
