

Name _____

1 Read and circle True or False.

The bougarabou

The bougarabou is a traditional drum from West Africa. It is made from wood and cow skin. You play it with one hand and a stick, or with two hands. The drummer also wears metal wristbands to add to the music. Singers often accompany the music of the bougarabou drum. It is very loud and you can hear it from a long distance.

- | | | |
|--|------|-------|
| 1 The bougarabou drum is from West Africa. | True | False |
| 2 The bougarabou drum is made from plastic and cow skin. | True | False |
| 3 You can play it with two hands. | True | False |
| 4 The drummer wears metal rings to add to the music. | True | False |
| 5 It isn't very loud. | True | False |

2 Look at the table. Complete for the bougarabou drum.

Name of drum	sakara
Originally from	Nigeria, West Africa
Made from	clay and goat skin
You play it with	a stick

3 Read the information in the table about the sakara drum. Write about it.

Name _____

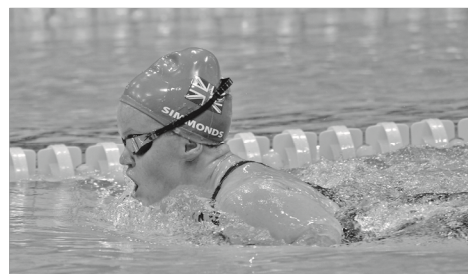

Make a book of famous sportspeople.

1 Read and circle.

Name: Ellie Simmonds
 Birthday: 11th November 1994
 Sport: swimming
 Achievements:
 2008: 2 gold medals in Paralympic Games
 2012: 2 gold medals in Paralympic Games; a World Record

Ellie Simmonds is a swimmer / cyclist . She received one / two gold medals in the 2012 Paralympic Games. She also competed in the 2008 Paralympic Games when she was only 13 / 18 years old.

2 Choose a sportsperson. Find out and write.

Name: _____
 Sport: _____
 Achievements: _____

3 Cut out. Make a class book.