Unit 6 Imperatives for giving instructions and directions

Grammar presentation

- We use the verb without a subject to give instructions.
- We put Don't in front of the verb to give a negative instruction.

Remember!
You can give instructions to one person or a lot of people, but the verb doesn't change.

Turn	left at the tree.
Go	over the bridge.
Remember	to close the gate.

Don't	turn	right at the tree.
Don't	go	round the farm.
Don't	forget	to close the gate.
