

English visitors to IES de Ames

Oxfordshire

The place where they live is Oxfordshire. It is divided into counties with many different towns and villages. The main town is Oxford. The weather is quiet hot in summer, very cold in winter and cloudy the rest of the year. It has a lot of fields of rape, wheat and poppies. The typical food is roast, which they have on Sundays and it looks like this:

The Sunday roast is a traditional British main meal served on Sundays (usually in the early afternoon for lunch), consisting of roasted meat, roast potato or mashed potato, with accompaniments such as Yorkshire pudding, stuffing, vegetables and gravy.

They go shopping in Reading, at the weekend, once a month. They go to a big shopping centre called The Oracle. It is on the river Thames.

In Oxfordshire there are a lot of houses along the river Thames. The people of the town are quiet, posh and polite, because they say please and thank you. They imitate the Queen.

The visitors

There are nine visitors: Aimee Davies, Sophia Mckay, Emma Reynolds, Emily Newman, Isabelle Tuite-Dalton, Emma Edwards, Grace Andresen-Guimaraes, Emily Passingham and Alison Farrand. They all go to Cranford House School, in Oxfordshire.

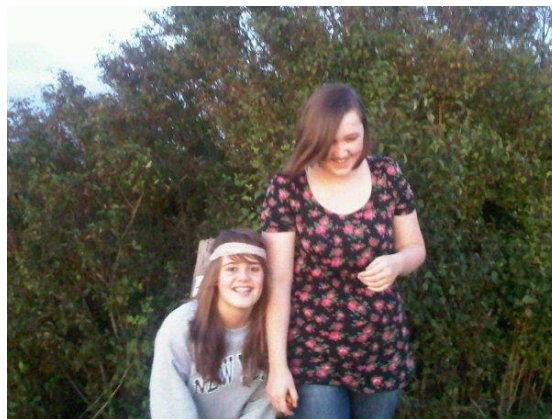

The school used to be an old house but now they have built the school behind it so the house is now the office and upstairs is the Headmistresses study. The symbol of the school is the willow tree. It is a big tree in the centre of the school.

I'm going to talk about Aimee Davies and Sophia McKay, who is my exchange partner.

Aimee is 15 years old. Aimee's favourite sport is sailing. She goes sailing every Thursday at 3:00 PM. Her hobbies are reading, watching films and cooking. She collects cooking magazines. She is very good at Maths, English, Art and History and she doesn't like P.E. Her favourite TV programme is Downton Abbey.

She does a lot of clubs like debating and eco club. Eco club is about trying to make the school less wasteful.

Sophia is my exchange partner. She is 15. Her hobbies are singing and doing sports like hockey, netball and diving.

Her favourite subject is P.E. She's very good at it. She does 5 hours of P.E. in the school and out of the school she does diving on Tuesday and Saturday. She likes going shopping. She goes shopping with her friends at the weekends in Reading. They take the train to Reading. It is a town in Oxfordshire and near Oxford. Sophia's favourite TV programmes are The Simpsons, Friends, Merlin, Downton abbey and Waterloo Road.

The place where they live is so beautiful and also the school, so I can't wait for March to go there!
