

ACTIONS 2

Have a bath - to wash in a bath or to wash someone in a bath

Have a shower - to wash using a device which releases drops of water through a lot of very small holes and which you stand under to wash your whole body

Hear - to receive or become conscious of a sound using your ears

Help - to make it possible or easier for someone to do something, by doing part of the work yourself or by providing advice, money, support, etc

Hide - to put something or someone in a place where they cannot be seen or found, or to put yourself somewhere where you cannot be seen or found

Hit - to touch someone or something with sudden force

Hope - to want something to happen or to be true, and usually have a good reason to think that it might

Hurry - to move or do things more quickly than normal or to make someone do this

Iron - to make clothes flat and smooth using an iron

Kick - to hit someone or something with the foot, or to move the feet and legs suddenly and violently

Kill - to cause someone or something to die

Kiss - to touch with your lips, especially as a greeting, or to press your mouth onto another person's mouth in a sexual way

Know - to have information in your mind

Land - to (cause to) arrive at a place after moving down through the air

Laugh - to smile while making sounds with your voice that show you think something is funny or you are happy

Learn - to get knowledge or skill in a new subject or activity

Like - to enjoy or approve of something or someone

Look for - to try to find something or someone

Love - to like another adult very much and be romantically and sexually attracted to them, or to have strong feelings of liking a friend or person in your family

Make - to produce something, often using a particular substance or material

Must - used to show that it is necessary or very important that something happens in the present or future

Open - not closed or fastened

Pass - to be successful in an examination, course, etc

Phone - to be using the telephone

Pick up - the act of picking someone or something up, or the place where it happens

Play - When you play, especially as a child, you spend time doing an enjoyable and/or entertaining activity

Pull - to move something towards yourself, sometimes with great physical effort

Push - to use physical pressure or force, especially with your hands, in order to move something into a different position, usually one that is further away from you

Put - to move something or someone into the stated place, position or direction

Rain - If it rains, water falls from the sky in small drops

Ride - to sit on a horse or a bicycle and travel along on it controlling its movements

Run - to move along, faster than walking, by taking quick steps in which each foot is lifted before the next foot touches the ground

Say - to pronounce words or sounds, to express a thought, opinion, or suggestion, or to state a fact or instruction

See - to be conscious of what is around you by using your eyes

Send - to cause something to go from one place to another, especially by post

Shine - to send out or reflect light

Shop - to buy things in shops

Shout - to express strong emotions, such as anger, fear or excitement, or to express strong opinions, in a loud voice

Shut up - to stop talking or making a noise, or to make someone do this

Sing - to make musical sounds with the voice, usually a tune with words

Sit - to (cause someone to) be in a position in which the lower part of the body is resting on a seat or other type of support, with the upper part of the body vertical

Skate - to move, or make a particular movement on a surface, using skates

Ski - to move over snow on skis

Sleep - the resting state in which the body is not active and the mind is unconscious

Smell - the ability to notice or discover that a substance is present by using your nose

Smile - to make a happy or friendly expression in which the corners of your mouth curve up

Smoke - to breathe smoke into the mouth and usually lungs from a cigarette, pipe, etc.

Speak - to say words, to use the voice, or to have a conversation with someone

Stand - to be in a vertical state by straightening the legs

Start - to begin doing something

Stay - to not move away from or leave

Stop - to finish doing something that you were doing

Swim - to move through water by moving the body or parts of the body

Take - to move something or someone from one place to another

Take off - If an aircraft, bird or insect takes off, it leaves the ground and begins to fly

Teach - to give someone knowledge or to train someone; to instruct

Tell - to say something to someone, often giving them information or instructions

Think - to believe something or have an opinion or idea

Tidy - having everything ordered and arranged in the right place, or liking to keep things like this

Touch - to put your hand or another part of your body lightly onto and off something or someone

Travel - to make a journey, usually over a long distance

Turn on - to start to show a particular quality

Turn off - to leave sth working

Underline - to draw a line under a word, especially in order to show its importance

Understand - to know the meaning of something that someone says

Wait - to not start until the correct moment .To allow time to go by,

Wake up - to (cause someone to) become awake and conscious after sleeping

Walk - to move along by putting one foot in front of the other, allowing each foot to touch the ground before lifting the next

Want - to wish for a particular thing or plan of action

Wash - to clean something using water

Water - to pour water on to plants or the soil that they are growing in

Watch - to look at something for a period of time, especially something that is changing or moving

Wear - to have clothing, jewellery, etc. on your body