

BARCELONA

There are many beautiful cities, but none of them is like Barcelona. Here you can enjoy both the Mediterranean coast and a hectic and crowded downtown. In summer, you can relax on the beach and in winter you can ski in the Pyrenees. What else can you ask for?

To have more fun you can go camping near the beach and visit many places. You only need to take a backpack with sun cream, a sleeping bag, a swimsuit and a camera.

In Barcelona you can taste the typical paella, allíoli, escalivada, Catalan cream... You can visit many places. If you like football, you can go to Camp Nou. If you are religious, you can go to Sagrada Família (Gaudí's unfinished cathedral). If you are an art-lover, do not miss the Picasso museum, it's a must!

So, in case you want to have a great time and spend your holidays in a beautiful city, come to Barcelona! You will enjoy it!
