Hi Ruth,

I went to a music festival last weekend with my sister and my cousin, Simon.

The best musicians on Saturday were a group from Africa – Staff Benda Billi. They made instruments from old things and they played them beautifully. I can't describe their music but I loved it!

The Black Eyed Peas played but they didn't have any instruments. They just sang and danced. Everyone really loved their songs. My sister bought a T-shirt.

The last group on Sunday were U2. They played for two hours. At the end they invited some of the audience on the stage. Simon went on stage and sang with U2! I've got a great photo.
