

3. Relojes y horas

Son las siete en punto.

Son las cinco y cuarto.

Son las siete y media.

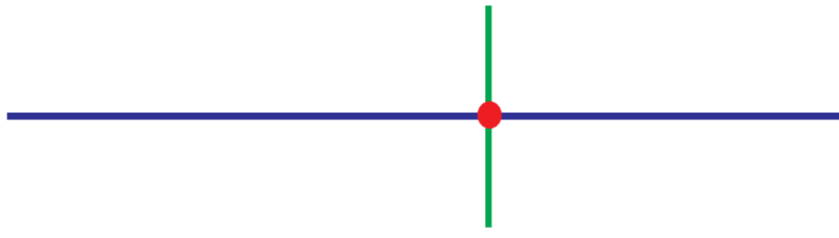

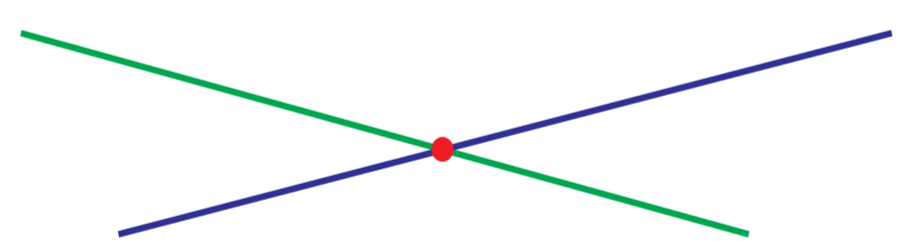

Son las once menos cuarto.

4. Tipos de líneas

 línea recta 	 línea curva abierta 	 línea curva cerrada 	 línea mixta 	 línea poligonal abierta 	 línea poligonal cerrada
----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

rectas secantes

Tienen un punto en común.

rectas perpendiculares

rectas paralelas

No tienen ningún punto en común.

recta 	semirecta 	segmento
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------