

The Vikings in Britain

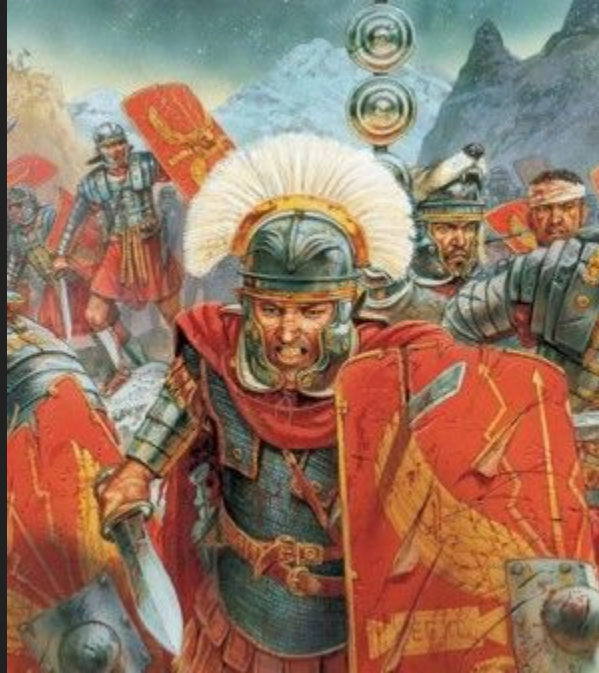

Previous Rulers of England

The Romans

From Italy

43 - 410

Previous Rulers of England

Anglo-Saxons

From Northern Europe

500 - 1066

Previous Rulers of England

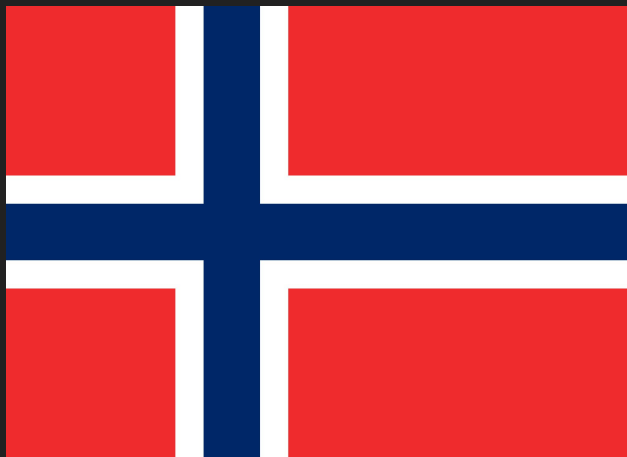

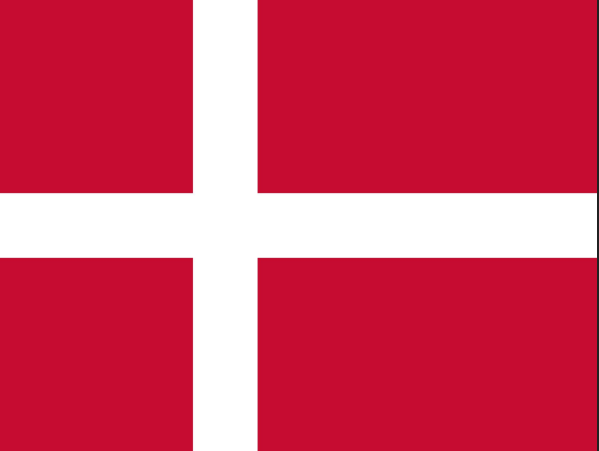

Vikings

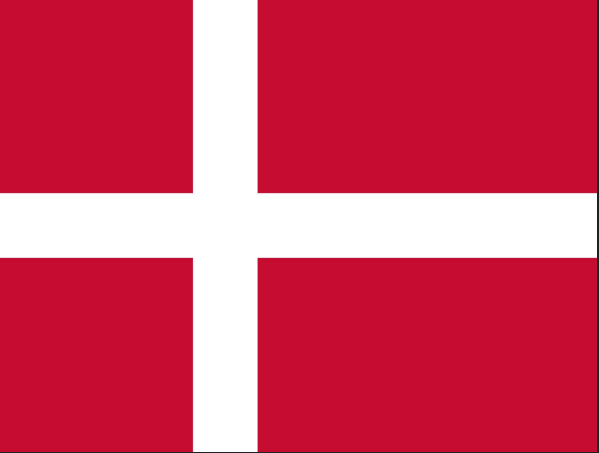

From Scandinavia

793 - 1066

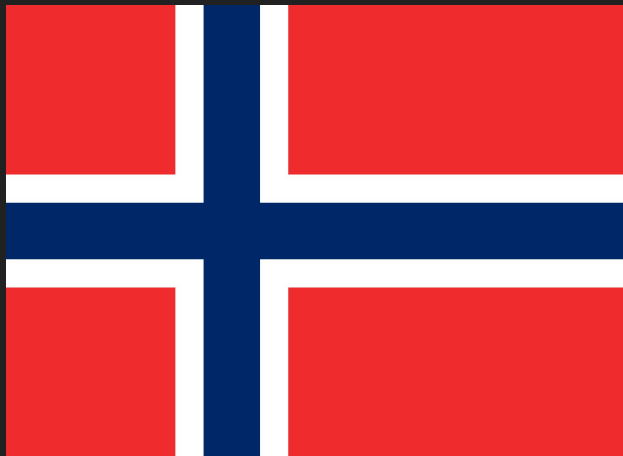

Where are the Vikings from?

Denmark

Norway

Sweden

Vikings in Europe

793

Vikings attack Lindisfarne

So many Kings!!!

9th Century

Vikings take many kingdoms in England

Slowly, they gain more power and territory

They make Jorvik (York) their capital city

Danelaw Pact

The English King, Alfred the Great makes a deal with the Vikings

East England now belongs to the Vikings

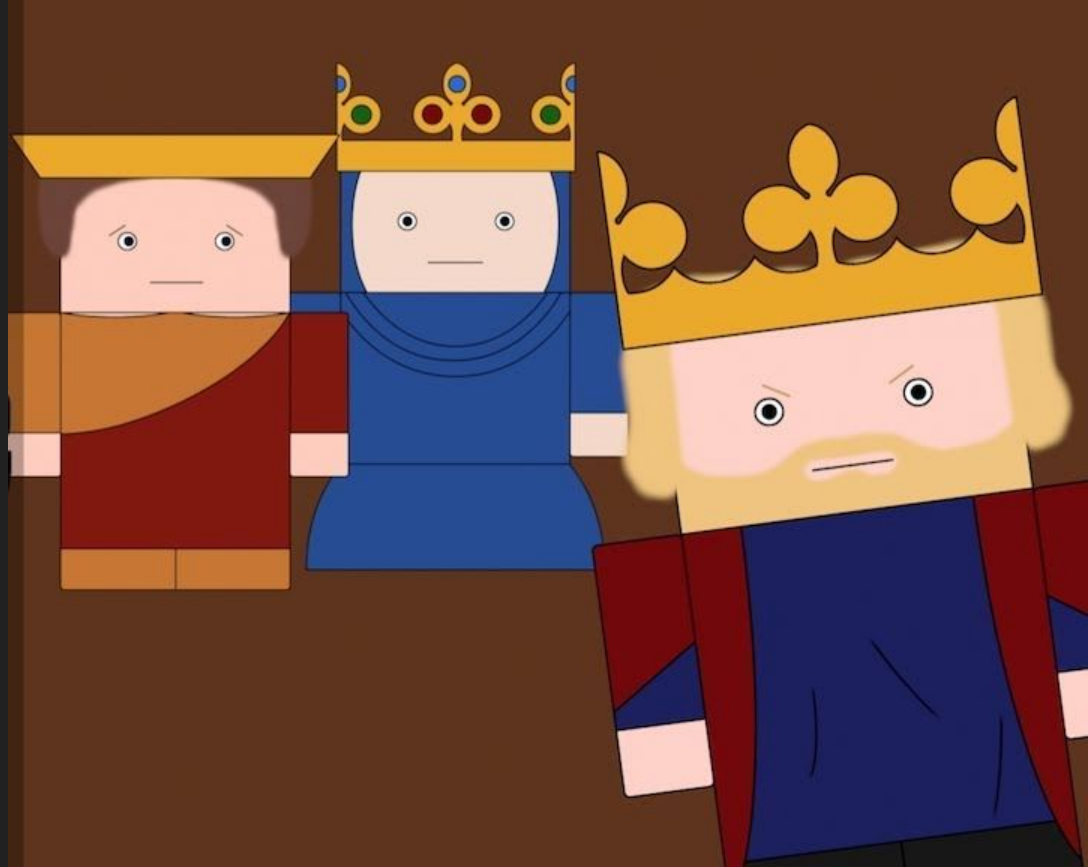

Vikings and Anglo-Saxons are now living together!

927 - No More Anglo-Saxon Kingdoms

All the Kingdoms put together

Now the Kingdom of England

10th Century - The harmony doesn't last long!

After Alfred dies, the following English Kings want to regain what was once theirs!

954- 956 Eric Bloodaxe, the last Viking King, is defeated and killed

Vikings are now ruled by the English King

Early 11th Century

King Ethelred's soldiers kill many Viking families

Vikings from Denmark try to invade and take control of England

The English king offers money to stop them...

...the Vikings take the money and still invade

They take control of England and the Ethelred flees to Normandy

1042-1066

Ethelred's son becomes king

He dies in 1066 without an heir to the throne

Harold of Wessex becomes king

Norwegians and Normandy rulers not happy!

The Norwegians invade first and lose

Battle of Hastings - 1066

3 days later, the Normans come to England.

They win control of England during the Battle of Hastings

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jxclrkSjkeo>

NO MORE VIKINGS OR ANGLO-SAXONS