

There is / There are, quantifiers –

A

- |        |            |
|--------|------------|
| 1 many | 4 How much |
| 2 many | 5 How many |
| 3 much | 6 many     |

B Open answers

C

- |        |        |
|--------|--------|
| 1 many | 5 many |
| 2 much | 6 many |
| 3 much | 7 an   |
| 4 a    | 8 much |

D 1 a lot of    2 a few    3 lots of    4 a little

E

- |                          |               |
|--------------------------|---------------|
| 1 some                   | 8 many /any   |
| 2 How many               | 9 any         |
| 3 a                      | 10 some       |
| 4 a lot of / many / some | 11 any / some |
| 5 an                     | 12 any        |
| 6 any / some             | 13 some       |
| 7 How much               |               |

TRANSLATE INTO ENGLISH

1. How many brother has your mother got? / How many brothers does your mother have?
2. There aren't many books in the library
3. Are they eating / having chips / French fries with chicken for dinner?
4. Does your sister drink much / a lot of milk? She drinks some / a little. Not much.
5. Javi doesn't normally/usually cook lentils with spinach.
6. How much money is there in the bank?
7. Dori is making a realistic sculpture because she doesn't like modern pottery.
8. This painting is lighter than the sketch but that mosaic is the most cheerful.
9. How much tuna does your salad have? / How much tuna has your salad got? It's got some / a little bit. It hasn't got / doesn't have much.
10. Does Pablo eat many / a lot of nuts?
No, he doesn't. He has nuts for breakfast once a week.