

HALLOWEEN

History

Halloween originated from an ancient Celtic holiday called Samhain.

Halloween was brought to the United States by immigrants from the Celtic region.

It is celebrated on October 31st.

“Halloween” means “holy evening.”

Traditionally, it was a night to pray for souls who have not yet reached Heaven.

Now, it is a non-religious celebration of “spooky” things.

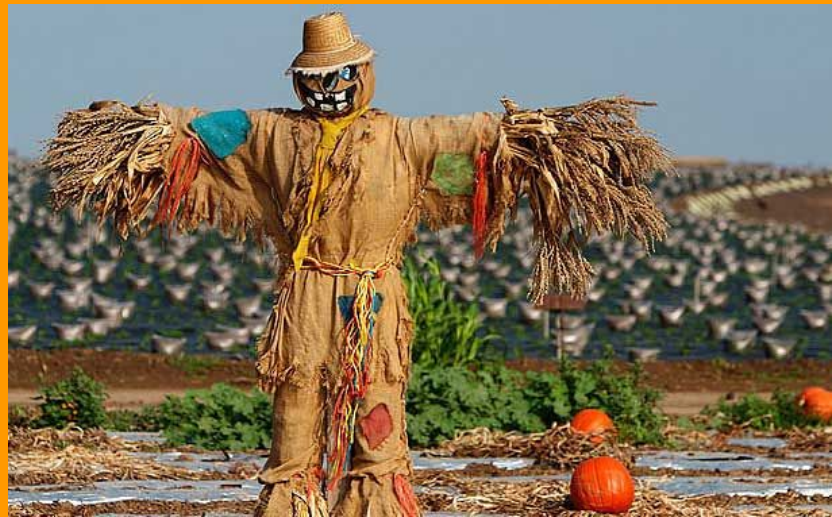

Pumpkin Patch

Squash

Scarecrow

Jack o lantern

Caramel Apples

Bobbing for Apples

HAUNTED HOUSE

Ghost stories

Horror movies

COSTUMES

TRICK OR TREAT

CANDY/ CHOCOLATE

SKULL

SKELETON

BROOM

WITCH

CAULDRON

COFFIN

VAMPIRE

WEREWOLF

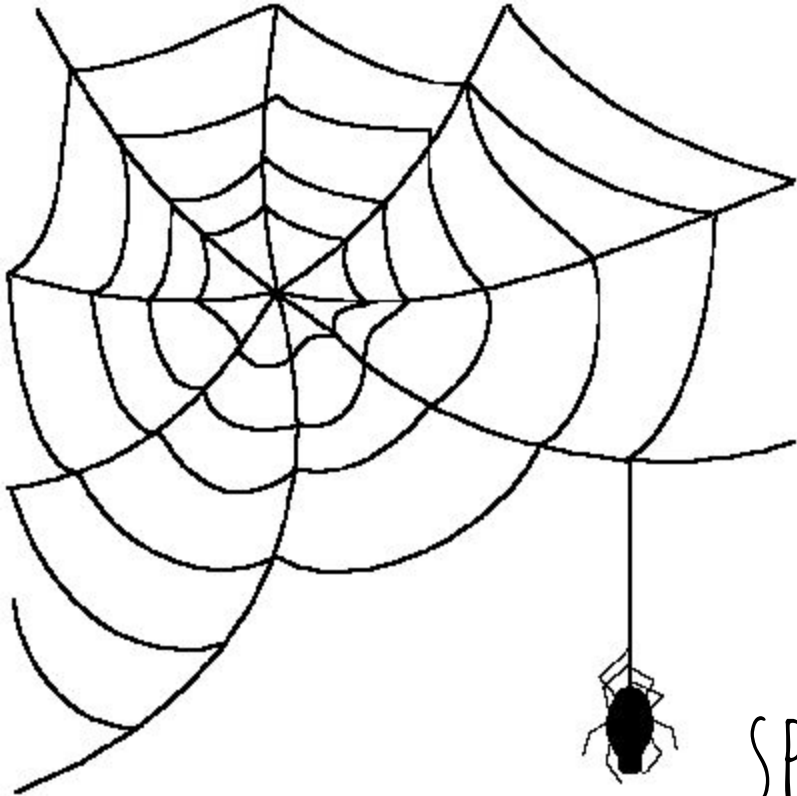

FULL MOON

GHOST/ PHANTOM

SPIDER WEB

SPIDER

GRAVEYARD

GRAVES

BATS

