Listening 1: Annie is with her dad preparing her backpack for their trip.

Texto audio 1:

Dad: Annie, come to your bedroom. We have to prepare your backpack.

Annie: Coming! I am so excited!

Dad: Take two t-shirts, a sweater and a pair of trousers. Take some socks and your boots too.

Annie: OK, Daddy! I love this purple sweater. It's so cute! And here are my boots. They are very soft and comfortable.

Dad: Prepare your small bag and don't forget your raincoat and a scarf. It's cold and rainy.

Annie: Here they are. My raincoat and my blue scarf. It's my favourite scarf. It's a present from Granny. I love it!

Dad: Don't forget to take an extra bag for your boots.

Annie: And can I take a toy too ... please?

Dad: Ok.

Annie: Everything is ready. My backpack is full. We can begin The Camino to Santiago.

Vai contestando as preguntas ata que sexas avisado.

Annie and her dad are doing the Camino to Santiago. They arrive in a town and meet some children playing. Annie and the children are having a conversation. Listen to it and do the activities.

Texto audio 2:

Girl: Hi! Where are you from?

Annie: We are from England.

Girl: Do you live in London?

Annie: No, we live in Stoke, a place with lots of parks and gardens.

Girl: Really?

Annie: Yes. The houses have beautiful colours and there's a park with a big statue in the middle.

Girl: How did you get here?

Annie: First by taxi to the airport. Then by plane to Porto, in Portugal, and finally by bus to our hotel. The next morning we started walking and here we are!

Girl: Great!

Dad: Well, it's time for dinner.

Girl: Time for dinner? But it's only six o'clock!

Annie: We always have dinner at half past six at home in England.

Dad: Annie, let's go! It's late! Say goodbye to your new friends.

Annie: Bye!

Girl: Bye! Have fun!

...

Annie: Dad, are we sleeping in a hotel today?

Dad: No, not in a hotel, but in a very similar place. It has big rooms with lots of beds. You'll like it!
